

First Ladies of the United States Presidencies

- Introduction
- Task
- Process
- Evaluation
- Conclusion
- Credits

- Teacher Page

Conclusion

By completing this presentation you will have gotten a sense of the impact that a First Lady can make on the presidency of her husband. Also through presenting you should have become more comfortable working with other team members and also presenting a persuasive argument to an audience. The realization that every one has an opinion an the influence of the media on the public opinion should be apparent, as well as a need of factual basis when evaluating a particular purpose.

